

MY ETERNAL HOME

Aryan

Grade IX

Chandramari International School (CMIS), Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu

Poem History: Received: 05.06.2024 | Accepted: 12.06.2024 | Published: 15.06.2024

Journal DOI: <https://doi.org/10.56602/TDJ>

Article DOI: <https://doi.org/10.56602/TDJ/13.1.1694-1694>

Where I come from,
That is, a land of modernity
I had joy parallel to no huge sum,
And felt the splendid essence of serenity.

A place of continuous development,
And a vivid glance of green to hue and blue
Into my soul the happiness went,
Where millions of mesmerizing memories grew and flew.

Leaving was quite the sad outcome,
A place I wouldn't forget for an eternity
Filled with memories as sweet as plum
All from one cheerful community.

Of this to be my origin I am glad,
The great and fabled Hyderabad.